

The U.S. Consulate General in Almaty is seeking Russian and Kazakh Language Instructor(s) to provide qualified individual and group teaching of Consulate General Almaty employees and/or spouses for a one-year period with an option to extend.

Minimum qualifications:

- 1) University Degree in Teaching either Russian or Kazakh Language. Certification of completion of specialized course(s) of Teaching Russian or Kazakh as a foreign language and teaching of adults.
- 2) Minimum of three years of demonstrated successful experience with the U.S. government and/or other international organizations in teaching Russian or Kazakh as a foreign language to adults.
- 3) Comprehensive knowledge of methodology and various teaching techniques.
- 4) Exceptional interpersonal skills. Ability to identify the specific needs of a student and adjust teaching technics accordingly.
- 5) Level V Russian and Kazakh language fluency. Level III (good working knowledge) English Language (speaking and reading) ability also required.

Please submit your offer/resume (including professional certifications, references and personal price for one 45-minute lesson) in English by Fax (7-727) 250-7636 or E-mail: almaexoproc@usaid.gov by July 30, 2014.

The award will be made to a candidate based on demonstrated qualifications, experience, and cost factors as contained in the initial offers.